

INCONTRO

27 aprile 1989

Siamo riandati ai nostri padri alla loro saggezza
alla loro fatica
alla loro forza
per avere noi
nella fatica quotidiana saggezza e forza

Prof. Giovanna De Luca
Preside

We went back to our ancestors to their wisdom
to their hard work
to their strength
to have all of us
by the daily work
wisdom and strength

Prof. Giovanna De Luca

Ci è parso essenziale raccogliere ed illustrare i detti, i proverbi, le filastrocche, gli indovinelli, gli ogget-ti del mondo contadino : "storia" del nostro paese e mezzo per ricongliarci alle nostre radici e per riflettere sul nostro passato.

Certo di aver interpretato i sen-timenti suoi, con orgoglio ed affetto Le offriamo questo lavoro, frutto del nostro impegno.

To the great scientist
Prof. Robert Gallo

We thought it essential to gather and show the sayings, the proverbs, the rhymes, the riddles, the tools of our country world: "history" of our country and way to go back to our roots in order to think over our past.

Sure of having interpreted your feelings we are proud to offer you with love, this work done with the best of our ability.

DETTI e PROVERBI DIALETTALI

SAYINGS and PROVERBS

By having and giving you'll keep your friends. Just having without giving you'll loose your friends.

The honest man lives troubles
The one who is not so honest lives well
The trickster lives in the best way.

An eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth.

Cu mò e cu té, amcizij za manté;

R H Y M E S

RHYME

It's an old nonsense rhyme dated about 1800. Mothers sang it to children in order to keep them quiet and to amuse them.

Set e s'tacci
c bell u pan ca facce,
u facce d canigghj
e zu magn quistu figghj.
U jett u munzzar
e zu racoghjn i quatrar;
pass u patr sij
e quist ié u figghj mij.

Voi mamm e voi tat
e z Petr lu cicat
è jut a basce p'l'ort
e ha truvat na vacc mort.
Ha fatt a fell a fell
e za magnat za Sabell.
Za Sabell cucinav
e u monac ballav;
ballav a quatt a quatt
sett pecur n'tu piatt.

Tupp, tupp la funtan chi ammass e chi sc(i)can E nasc(i) u bambarin
u bambarin sta ntu castell p' pgghjà a l'aucell.
L'aucell sta n'ta caiol
p' pgghjà na figliol.
La figliol sta n'tu lett
ca spttav li cumpett.
Li cumpett nzuccaræ t
mittl mocc a la cical.
La cical fa cuccurucù
isci e trasce a ndò vu tu.

The first rhyme talks about carnival

The second rhyme is quite nonsense even if it's dedicated to a cat.

CARNVAL

Carnval e carnvalicchj damm nu poc d savcicc(i) S n ma dæj cu bon
, t deng cu baston.
E s n ma vuj da
ji m mett a iastmà.

MUSCE MUSCELL

Musc muscell
pan e cascell
pizz e rcott
puff la bott.

The third rhyme tells the old story of the lamb and the wolf. This time the lamb can save his life thanks to a dog.

The fourth rhyme has a sort of moral.
It says that when you have to work nobody is around you, and when you have to gather some money everybody remembers you.

In the last rhyme words are together in order to create music.
It's quite meaningless.

Cencila frencia iv pa via,
occhj rusc facev a spij, s n'ce stævcoss tort Cencilia frencia saria mort.

Quann zapp e quann pòt
n' teng zian e n'teng nput;
quann arriv ca z vnnegn Zij da quà e zij da là.

Sega,sega cumpà,
questa seg n'n vò s'gà.
Mitt'ci l'oglj e
mitt'ci u vin e vid sta seg cumm camin.

These two rhymes are nonsense.

Words are put together in order to form a rhyme and to give some music
They are quite meaningless.

Zump, zumpitt
cal cagnitt
m romp u muss e m steng zitt.
Cuscenell e matarazz
e a Madonn
m port m'bracce.

Arr, arr, arr
e z monc va a cavall
e u ciucce n' currev
e z monc za r'dev.

LULLABY

This is an old lullaby.

It tells the story of a wolf which ate a lamb.

The singer is wondering what the lamb could do when he was in the wolf mouth.

Here too it's a matter of rhyme rather than of true meaning of the words and the beauty of the lullaby is mostly in the music.

NINNA NANNA

E ñinna ninna ninna ninnarella e u lup za magnat a p'curell.

E pcurell mij cumm ha fatt quann u lup mocc t purtast..

E pcurell mij comm facist

E ninna ninna nonn
comm ha fatt quann
u lup ze mascos a rret a fratt..

DECLARATION OF LOVE

This is an old way to declare one's love to girl. Here the lover is offering a flower and he tells to his loved girl to keep it in her arms as it were her lover.

At last he asks if the girl prefers to have him or just the flower.

In the second declaration of love, the lover is offering a coffee with a kind of typical South Italian biscuits to make the girl happy.

Tect stu fior,
tu mann la tua amor,
tu mann inargentat
cor'spost li mand't?
Si'l lu piglju stringi
e lu.bracci
cumm fuss la stess przon; vu a me o u fio?

S'gnurin vulet u café?
S'gnurin cummar Mariell;
tarallucci e v'scuttin
cuntantam sta signurin.

These three folk songs are about the ancient theme of love. The first one tells the story of young man who is in love with a too young girl, who is always attending school. So he has to wait for the girl to be older and then she will show him all her beauty.

The second song is kind of hymn to girls beauty. They are like flowers and the lover would smell them all day long.

The third song is about a girl too. Her lover compares her to a peach who's growing more and more beatiful as time goes by. But unlukily, the girl isn't in love with the young man and she always denies herself driving the poor boy mad.
